MADISON— State Representative Rob Swearingen (R-Rhineland) honors Speaker Robin Vos for his years of service and leadership to the Wisconsin State Assembly.

“Speaker Vos has dedicated years of service to the people of Wisconsin, and our state is stronger because of his leadership. I am sincerely grateful for his commitment to advancing policies that promoted fiscal responsibility, economic growth, and greater opportunity for Wisconsin families. Robin is one of the smartest people I have had the pleasure of working with, and he has always kept the best interests of Wisconsin at the forefront of every decision.

He has also been a true friend. I’ve enjoyed many great conversations and a lot of laughs beyond the granite dome of the Capitol. Robin is the definition of a statesman. I am personally thankful for his friendship and mentorship over the years. He has been a steady and principled leader, and someone I have been proud to serve alongside. Robin’s leadership has left a lasting imprint on Wisconsin. Though often underappreciated, his impact will be felt for years to come. I wish him and his family all the very best as they begin this next chapter.”

Speaker Vos served in the Wisconsin Legislature for 22 years. He began his career in the State Assembly in 2005 and has served as Speaker of the Assembly since 2013 where he provided steady leadership for more than a decade and helped define the course of Wisconsin politics.

Throughout his distinguished career, Speaker Vos has led with integrity and professionalism, earning the trust of his colleagues and constituents alike. As one of the most visible figures in Wisconsin politics, and at times the subject of significant public criticism, he remained focused and relentless in pursuit of his principles and committed to doing what he believed was best for the people of Wisconsin. That unwavering leadership defines his legacy and the lasting impact he leaves on our state.
