Senator Jamie Wall and Representative Ryan Spaude released the following statement about the alleged mismanagement of taxpayer dollars at Newcap, headquartered in their districts in Green Bay:

“I was deeply concerned to learn of the serious and credible allegations of the misuse of funds at Newcap,” said Senator Jamie Wall. “The thousands of people who rely on their services deserve better, and we all expect integrity and transparency from organizations entrusted with public and charitable dollars.”

“We need an immediate, independent review to ensure every dollar intended to serve families in need is properly accounted for,” said Representative Ryan Spaude. “I call for a thorough investigation so taxpayers and the community can have confidence that their money is being managed responsibly.”
