MADISON, Wis. – Judge Chris Taylor’s campaign for the Wisconsin Supreme Court released its first TV ad of the election cycle, titled “Rights and Freedoms.” The initial six-figure statewide ad buy will begin airing in the Madison, Milwaukee, and Green Bay media markets on broadcast and cable and will run through Election Day.

“We are excited to launch the first TV ad of this campaign which will reach viewers across the state from now until Election Day,” said Chris Taylor for Justice Campaign Manager Ashley Franz. “Judge Chris Taylor has spent her career protecting Wisconsin families and standing up for their rights. This ad makes clear why she’s the candidate voters can trust to keep our courts fair, independent, and focused on Wisconsinites.”

Transcript:

[Chris Taylor] Costs are on the rise.

Extremists are trying to eliminate food assistance and BadgerCare.

Even trying to bring back an 1849 abortion ban.

Our courts are our last line of defense.

That’s why I’m running for State Supreme Court.

I’m Judge Chris Taylor.

I've spent my career standing up for Wisconsin families, for abortion rights, and domestic violence survivors, and I'll keep protecting Wisconsin on the State Supreme Court.

[Narrator] Judge Chris Taylor. Protecting our rights, defending our freedoms.
