Mequon, WI- The Working Class Heroes Fund, founded by Dan Osborn, proudly announced today its endorsement of Mike Thurrow in his campaign for Congress in Wisconsin's Sixth Congressional District.

From firefighters and nurses, to truck drivers and tradesmen, the Working Class Heroes Fund is the only organization across the country dedicated to bringing working-class people to Congress and challenging the corporate capture of both parties.

"Mike Thurrow is exactly the kind of working-class leader we need in Washington," said Megan Osborn, Organizing Director, Working Class Heroes Fund. "As a firefighter, Mike has spent his career running toward danger and standing with families on their hardest days—not serving party bosses or corporate donors. Mike understands what it takes for Wisconsin families to get by, and he's running to break the two-party stranglehold and give working people a real voice. The Working Class Heroes Fund is proud to endorse him."

"I'm deeply honored to have earned the support of the Working Class Heroes Fund" said Mike Thurrow, Independent candidate for WI-6. "As a fire captain and HAZMAT specialist, I know what it means to work two jobs to support my family and make ends meet. I've spent more than two decades as a public servant, running headfirst into life-threatening situations. Taking on corruption in D.C. is the most important fire we can fight right now—and I intend to do exactly that."

Thurrow is running to bring a working-class, independent perspective to Congress, ensuring families who show up, work hard, and raise the next generation have a representative who fights for them—not for party politics or corporate donors. Learn more at thuroforcongress.com.
