WASHINGTON — Congressman Tony Wied (WI-08) released the following statement after last night's State of the Union address:

“Last night, we watched President Trump reflect on our substantial wins over the last thirteen months and outline his vision for success in the next three years,” said Congressman Wied. “From historic tax cuts for hardworking American families to lower inflation and interest rates and the most secure border in American history, President Trump and Republicans have delivered for the American people. Anyone who watched last night's speech knows that President Trump has ignited the Great American Comeback. No matter how much Democrats try to grandstand and obstruct our progress, I remain committed to working with the President to continue making life more affordable for Northeast Wisconsinites, keep our streets safe, and put America first.”
