LA CROSSE, WI. - Yesterday, Rebecca Cooke was confronted on camera and asked to explain her past comments calling the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement "disgusting."

In her rush to escape, she abandoned her car entirely, leaving the trunk wide open - a chaotic scene that perfectly mirrors her inability to defend her own words. Cooke apparently has no problem smearing federal law enforcement, but the moment she's held accountable, she runs.

The questions were simple:

- Do you support deporting illegal immigrants who rape and murder U.S. citizens?
- Why did you call ICE "disgusting"?
- Do you support abolishing ICE?

"Even Rebecca Cooke knows there's no defense for smearing the brave men and women who keep our communities safe from violent criminals, rapists, and murderers. A public coward is a liability in office, and Cooke will never be the fighter Wisconsin deserves." - Grace Kim, Campaign Spox
