MADISON, Wis. — New reporting from Racine County Eye reveals that Bryan Steil continues to double-down on widely debunked election conspiracy claims in one of his rare telephone town hall appearances. While hiding his face behind his phone, Bryan Steil tried to evade accountability from his constituents by pushing tired and untrue election integrity claims, all while touting extreme legislation that would make it more difficult for Wisconsinites - especially women - to vote.

Read more about Steil's long history of pushing election conspiracy claims and attempts to restrict access to voting:

- Bryan Steil hired Trump's campaign aide who was involved in the Arizona fake electors plot to the House Administration Committee.
- Bryan Steil appeared alongside Donald Trump ally and top election denier Jim Jordan to support Wisconsin Republicans' bad-faith effort to meddle in election administration and starve local governments of the resources they need to run elections.
- Bryan Steil has gone so far as to being willing to shut down the government over the MAGA-endorsed SAVE Act, which presents additional hurdles to voting and purge voter rolls of US citizens.
