Rep. Goeben Elected Minority Caucus Vice Chair

Madison – Rep. Joy Goeben (R-Hobart) has been elected by her fellow Republican colleagues to serve as Minority Caucus Vice Chair in the Wisconsin State Assembly.

"I am honored to have the support and confidence of my colleagues as I take on this leadership role. I believe this is an important opportunity to strengthen our caucus, improve communication, and ensure every member has a voice and the support they need to succeed," said Rep. Goeben.

In her campaign for the position, Rep. Goeben emphasized the need for a stronger, more unified caucus willing to challenge the status quo and take a fresh approach to representing Wisconsin residents. She also highlighted the importance of building relationships among members, encouraging honest conversations, and strengthening the voices of all caucus members.

"We cannot expect different results if we are unwilling to do things differently. I believe we need to be willing to have difficult conversations, challenge one another respectfully, and stand together on the issues that matter to the people we represent. I am ready to bring fresh energy, hard work, and a strong voice to this position," said Rep. Goeben.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to continue serving the residents of the 5th Assembly District while taking on this additional responsibility. My commitment remains the same: to listen to my constituents, stand up for our communities, and work toward practical solutions that move Wisconsin forward," concluded Rep. Goeben.
