For Immediate Release
November 11, 2026
Contact: press@pedrocolon.com

Milwaukee Professional Firefighters Association Local 215 Endorses Judge Pedro Colón for Wisconsin Supreme Court

MILWAUKEE - Today, the Milwaukee Professional Firefighters Association, IAFF Local 215, announced its endorsement of Judge Pedro Colón for Wisconsin Supreme Court.

“Our members show up on people’s worst days, and we treat every call the same, no matter who’s on the other end,” said Local 215 President Eric Daun. “Judge Colón has brought that same fairness to the bench for more than 15 years. He knows Milwaukee, he respects the people who keep it safe, and Local 215 is proud to stand behind him for the Wisconsin Supreme Court.”

“Everyday, our firefighters put their lives on the line for anyone who needs them, no matter who they are or where they come from,” said Judge Pedro Colón. “Their courage and professionalism set a standard all of us in public service should live up to and I am proud to have their trust.”

Judge Pedro Colón is a graduate of Marquette University and the University of Wisconsin Law School. He was the first Latino ever elected to the Wisconsin Legislature, representing Milwaukee in the State Assembly from 1999 to 2010. He was appointed by Governor Jim Doyle to the Milwaukee County Circuit Court in 2010, where he served for 13 years. In 2023, he was appointed to the Wisconsin Court of Appeals by Governor Tony Evers, becoming the first Latino to serve on our state’s appellate court. Colón and his wife, Betty, live on Milwaukee’s south side and have two daughters.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court election will be held on Tuesday, April 6, 2027, with a primary on February 16, 2027, if necessary. For more about Judge Pedro Colón and his campaign, visit www.pedrocolon.com. A headshot of Judge Colón can be downloaded here.

###