Curt Brauer Announces Election for Sheboygan County Board – District 10

SHEBOYGAN – Earlier today, Curt Brauer declared his candidacy for election to the Sheboygan County Board. A resident of Sheboygan, Brauer is an electrician and Business Representative for International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local 494. Brauer was appointed to the Sheboygan County Board in May of 2017 to replace the late Supervisor Jack Van Dixhorn.

Brauer has dedicated his career to fighting for Wisconsin's working women and men, with a focus on health care, veteran's affairs, and education issues.

Brauer released the following statement following his declaration of candidacy:

> "Sheboygan is headed in the right direction, and I'm looking forward to continuing my service to our community," Brauer said.

On the same day as announcing his candidacy, Brauer received the endorsements of Sheboygan County Board Chairman Tom Wegner and Sheboygan Mayor Mike Vandersteen.

> Sheboygan County Board Chairman, Tom Wegner said, "Curt has been a great addition to the County Board. He is both thoughtful and engaged. He cares deeply about the community and it shows."

> Sheboygan Mayor Mike Vandersteen, "Curt Brauer has done an excellent job stepping in to fill the remaining term of former County Supervisor Van DixHorn. Curt has exhibited a strong interest in the concerns of the residents in his district and is the best choice for the 10th District Supervisor on the Sheboygan County Board."

Brauer and his wife, Jean are both lifetime Sheboygan residents. Brauer is a graduate of Lakeshore Technical College and Sheboygan South High School. Curt is involved in the community and serves as Chairman, Moraine Park Technical College electrical advisory committee, board member, Fond du Lac Construction Academy and Committee Member, Habitat for Humanity Lakeside Resource Development.
