Reese Wood announces candidacy for Wisconsin's 45th District State Assembly

Beloit WI – Reese Wood (Beloit) will be seeking the 45th District Wisconsin State Assembly seat in the 2018 fall election as a libertarian.

A lifelong resident of the stateline area, Reese is the former president of Janesville Community Radio and also has independently produced The Beloit Podcast online since 2015. Reese is also a member of the Rock County Libertarian party and the Libertarian party of Wisconsin.

“I've lived, work, and currently raise my family in the 45th district. I understand the impact of partisan politics on the average person in the 45th. Too few Democrats and Republicans understand the social and economic issues we face in the 45th. I've seen the stagnation that comes with traditional partisan politics and I think Wisconsinites deserve to realize our true potential, without the influence or coercion of partisan politics. I'm offering voters of the 45th an independent voice”.

“I will work every day to decrease barriers for small businesses and entrepreneurs. I will work to increase personal freedoms and also increase government transparency and efficiency”.

The official campaign kickoff for Reese Wood for Assembly will be Sunday December 17th in downtown Beloit at Bushel & Pecks, 4-5 Pm. Also attending this event will also be Phil Anderson for Wisconsin Governor and Patrick Baird for Lieutenant Governor. Phil is a former Beloit and current chair of the Wisconsin Libertarian party.

Reese Wood is a resident of Beloit and is campaigning for peace and prosperity. He is running to represent the 45th Assembly District in the November 6, 2018 general election.
