Genrich releases first round of public endorsements

Highlights support of former county executives Nusbaum and Hinz

Today, Rep. Eric Genrich released a first wave of public endorsements for his mayoral candidacy, including those of current and former elected officials, community leaders, and business owners.

"The quality of these endorsements says more about the strength of my campaign than I ever could," said Genrich. "I am incredibly lucky to have this roster of successful, community-minded individuals advocating on my behalf."

Former Brown County Sheriff and Executive, Tom Hinz, said of Genrich, "I've known Eric and his family for many years. He has ALL the qualities we want in our next mayor. He is a visionary, works well with others and will not be hesitant to make tough decisions that will impact the future of our city."

Former De Pere Mayor and Brown County Executive Nancy Nusbaum explained her endorsement in the following way, "As a new Green Bay resident, I am pleased to support Eric Genrich for mayor. I believe Eric has the administrative and executive skills needed for the challenges ahead. His vision and ability to bring people together to achieve that vision make Eric Genrich the right person for Green Bay's future."

Tony Ehbrar, owner of American Tent and Sidewall and member of the Green Bay Chamber's Young Professionals Advisory Committee added, "Eric is an experienced leader who is the perfect blend of visionary and pragmatist. Among his many qualifications, I truly appreciate his willingness to listen, his collaborative approach to problem solving and his 'get the job done' attitude. Green Bay needs a mayor who will unite, not divide, our great city. Someone who will challenge us to advance, not regress. That mayor is Eric Genrich."

In addition the individual supporters included below, Genrich has won the support of the Green Bay Metro Firefighters and AFSCME Council 32. Citizens interested in endorsing the campaign and getting involved in other ways can visit www.genrichforgb.com.
