Senator Taylor Fears for Worst after SCOTUS Nomination

(MADISON) – Monday night, the President announced his nomination for the Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Justice following the recent announcement of Justice Anthony Kennedy’s resignation.

The nominee, Judge Brett Kavanaugh, has already drawn widespread criticism for his staunch conservative views, some of which are so outdated they’ve led to fights with his colleagues on the bench.

In response to Trump’s decision to nominate Judge Kavanaugh, Senator Lena Taylor (D-Milwaukee) issued the following statement:

“Women’s rights. Civil rights. Human rights as a whole. This is what’s at stake. Despite the attempts of some Republican’s to present him as a moderate, Judge Kavanaugh’s recorded opinions are evidence of an ideology better described as medieval.”

“With every string he ties to the Supreme Court, Trump is shifting the nation’s highest court backwards.”
