Madison, WI – Representative Felzkowski (R-Irma) expressed her excitement and gratitude to the Assembly Republican Caucus following her election to the post of Assistant Majority Leader for the 2019-2020 Legislative Session:

“I want to thank my fellow caucus members for the faith they have placed in me. I promise to aid every single member in advocating on behalf of our entire sixty-three member caucus, all while ensuring our conservative principles and core values remain uncompromised as we enter uncharted political territory.”

“I believe we have assembled a leadership team reflective of our diverse caucus and am honored to be a part of it. I am eager to work with Speaker Vos, Majority Leader Steineke, and the remainder of our leadership team to develop a dynamic, winning strategy that will make the 104th Legislative Session a resounding success. This coming session will bring with it new challenges, but also the opportunity to reinforce to our constituents that conservative ideals work, and will continue to move us forward.”
