One week left to nominate for 6th District Difference Makers Award

Aldewoman Milele A. Coggs is seeking nominations for the Dr. James G. White 6th District Difference Makers Award, honoring those persons or organizations making the 6th District a great place in which to live. Nominations are now being accepted, with a deadline at the close of business on Friday, January 11, 2019. Six awards will be given out – four to 6th District residents, one to a community organization, and one to a block club.

Aldewoman Coggs established the Dr. James G. White 6th District Difference Makers Awards to recognize those residents and organizations that work diligently to improve and strengthen the quality of life for themselves, their neighborhood and the City of Milwaukee. She said the award recognizes selfless and dedicated work to improve the 6th District, neighborhoods and the community and the strength and dedication shown by people and organizations willing to go the “extra mile.”

“Dr. James G. White worked tirelessly each day towards advancing the lives of Milwaukeeans,” said Ald. Coggs. “We reserve this award for those who continue that selfless spirit of generosity and enduring, positive commitment.”

Dr. White was a resident of the 6th District who served as a county supervisor and the regional vice president of WestCare Wisconsin Harambee Community Center, facilitating countless neighborhood projects and programs and always using his gifts, talents and knowledge to improve and empower his community.
