United States Attorney's Office Collects Over $10 Million in Civil and Criminal Actions in Fiscal Year 2018

United States Attorney Matthew D. Krueger announced today that the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Wisconsin collected $10,164,702.99 in criminal and civil actions in Fiscal Year 2018. Of this amount, $5,209,589.92 was collected in criminal actions and $4,955,113.07 was collected in civil actions.

Additionally, the Eastern District of Wisconsin worked with other U.S. Attorney's Offices and components of the Department of Justice to collect an additional $10,418,733.97 in cases pursued jointly by these offices. Of this amount, $14,075.03 was collected in criminal actions and $10,404,658.94 was collected in civil actions.

As a whole, the Justice Department collected nearly $15 billion in civil and criminal actions in the fiscal year ending September 30, 2018. The $14,839,821,650 in collections in FY 2018 represents is nearly seven times the appropriated $2.13 billion ($2,136,750,000) budget for the 94 U.S. Attorneys' offices.

"The men and women of the U.S. Attorneys' Offices across the country work diligently, day in and day out, to see that the citizens of our nation receive justice. The money that we are able to recover for victims and this country as a whole is a direct result of their hard work," Director James A. Crowell, IV, Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys.

"Protecting taxpayers' funds and making crime victims whole are among our top priorities," said U.S. Attorney Krueger. "We are committed to recovering any funds owed to the United States and ensuring that wrongdoers do not keep their ill-gotten gains."

The U.S. Attorneys' Offices, along with the department's litigating divisions, are responsible for enforcing and collecting civil and criminal debts owed to the United States and criminal debts owed to federal crime victims. The law requires defendants to pay restitution to victims of certain federal crimes who have suffered a physical injury or financial loss. While restitution is paid to the victim, criminal fines and felony assessments are paid to the department's Crime Victims Fund, which distributes the funds collected to federal and state victim compensation and victim assistance programs.

The largest civil collections were from affirmative civil enforcement cases, in which the United States recovered government money lost to fraud or other misconduct or collected fines imposed on individuals and/or corporations for violations of federal health, safety, civil rights or environmental laws. In addition, civil debts were collected on behalf of several federal agencies, including the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Internal Revenue Service, the Small Business Administration and the Department of Education.
