Shilling Statement on ACA Lawsuit

A.G. Kaul acts to protect Wisconsin health care access

MADISON – Senate Democratic Leader Jennifer Shilling (D-La Crosse) released the following statement after Attorney General Josh Kaul withdrew Wisconsin from a lawsuit to overturn the Affordable Care Act (ACA) and its health care protections:

“With A.G. Kaul withdrawing Wisconsin from this lawsuit, families and seniors can rest assured that their health care will be protected. The fact remains that the ACA continues to provide affordable access to quality health insurance for families across Wisconsin. This is a great day for the health and well-being of all Wisconsin residents.”
