Madison- Rep. Mary Felzkowski (R-Irma) released the following statement after Congressman Sean Duffy announced he would be resigning from his seat:

“Over the past eight years, Congressman Duffy has done nothing but serve Wisconsin’s 7th district with honor, passion and determination. He has been a powerful and fierce voice for the interests of Northern Wisconsin in Washington D.C. and has left a lasting imprint on that institution. His time in public service in this role has been an inspiration to us all and a model of principled, conservative values in action.

Sean and Rachel are in my thoughts and prayers as they face this difficult time, and I wish nothing but the best for their soon-to-be-born baby girl and their entire family.”
