Milwaukee Firefighters Local 215 endorses Rebecca Kiefer in race to be Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge

MILWAUKEE COUNTY – Rebecca Kiefer, candidate for Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge, Branch 29, announced today she has gained the endorsement of the members of Milwaukee Professional Fire Fighters, International Association of Fire Fighters, Local 215.

“Rebecca impressed our Executive Board and we believe she shares the values of our membership,” said Mike Bongiorno, President. “The Milwaukee Professional Fire Fighters Association are proud to support Rebecca in her run for Milwaukee County Circuit Court Judge in April.”

“I thank the men and women of Fire Fighters Local 215 for their support and endorsement,” said Rebecca Kiefer. “The members of Local 215 keep our community safe, often putting their own safety at risk to do so. I am grateful for the work they do, and for their support.”

The election will be held on April 7, 2020.

For more than a decade, Rebecca has been an Assistant District Attorney in Milwaukee County. Her focus is the welfare of children involved in the foster care system. She has successfully represented the state in more than 100 jury and bench trials, and has argued before the Wisconsin Supreme Court. Rebecca serves as Chair of the Children & the Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin, as a Director for the Association for Women Lawyers and the Government Lawyers Division, and trains attorneys from across Wisconsin on issues dealing with children and the law.

Prior to her time as a local prosecutor, Rebecca was a municipal attorney and an associate at Kiefer Law Office. She is married to Paul Bodis, a union worker for Southwest Airlines, and they have two young children. Rebecca is also active in her local community foundation, the Rotary Club, the Junior League of Milwaukee, her daughter's Girl Scout Daisy troop, and her children's school.
