Joan Ballweg Leadership Scholarship Winner

Allison Wendt Recognized for Leadership in School and Community

Madison...State Representative Joan Ballweg (R-Markesan) presented one of her 16th Annual Joan Ballweg Leadership Scholarships to Berlin High School Senior, Allison Wendt. Each year, five $500 scholarships are awarded to outstanding students across the 41st Assembly District. Each recipient will receive their scholarship and a congratulatory video from Rep. Ballweg virtually.

“These scholarships are awarded to students who are active in and outside of the classroom, achieve good grades and are role models and leaders among their community,” said Ballweg. “Allison is a strong leader on her school’s student council and her yearbook, is an academically talented young woman, and has made an impact by volunteering at both the Berlin Outdoor Aquatic Center and Berlin Senior Center. This year’s group of leaders are ambitious and inspiring, and I know they will continue to do great things as they go on to pursue their degrees.”

Allison Wendt, Berlin High School, is a strong student leader. Her academic success and strong work ethic have led her to attend UW-Eau Claire. She has demonstrated leadership at her high school, her community, and through the implementation and management of new programs developed by her at the aquatics center.

“Congratulations, Allison! You’ve excelled as a student leader and have made your parents and community proud,” said Ballweg. “Your next challenge is to take what you’ve learned through these experiences and go forward, making Wisconsin a better place for us all.”

Awards were also given to Alissa St. Louis of Princeton, Theo Rauch of Ripon, Erin Pease of Adams-Friendship, and Patrick Derleth of Berlin.
