FOUNDER, PRESIDENT AND LEAD COUNSEL OF LAW FORWARD RESPONDS TO TRUMP CAMPAIGN WISCONSIN RECOUNT

Madison, Wis. – Under state law, Donald Trump is entitled to request a recount.

If he wants to do it, that's his right. But I can think of other ways to spend a couple million dollars that are a lot more fun and exactly as likely to change the results of the election.

These numbers have already been double- and triple-checked by local and county election officials. They'll be quadruple-checked by the state canvass.

Adding a fifth count isn't going to change the outcome. This election has already been decided by Wisconsin voters.
