

For Immediate Release

December 4, 2020

Contact: Rachael Cabral-Guevara | 920-851-7509

Rep.-Elect Cabral-Guevara Holds In-District Events Ahead of Inauguration

Neenah, WI - Before her inauguration in January, Representative-Elect Rachael Cabral-Guevara will be hosting 3 listening sessions and an in-district ceremonial swearing-in. Representative-Elect Rachael Cabral-Guevara (R-Neenah) issued the following statement:

“Over the next three weeks, I want to make sure my future constituents across this district have an opportunity to talk to me about the issues facing their families. This is especially important to do before my official inauguration in January so that we can hit the ground running.”

“We will be having two in-person listening sessions, and one virtual. Due to COVID restrictions, attendance at the Neenah Listening Session will be capped at 50 and the Fox Crossing Listening Session will be capped at 25. RSVPs are required. All CDC and local health guidelines will be followed. Those details are as follows:

- December 11, 2020 at 2:30PM: In-person, Neenah City Hall, City Council Chambers. RSVP to rachaelcg55th@gmail.com.
- December 12, 2020 at 10:00AM: Virtual, Zoom.us. RSVP to rachaelcg55th@gmail.com in order to receive the link.
- December 15, 2020 at 2:30PM: In-person, Fox Crossing Municipal Complex, Board Chambers. RSVP to rachaelcg55th@gmail.com.”

“We also will be having a ceremonial in-district swearing-in at Neenah City Hall. That ceremony will take place on December 17, 2020 at 10:00AM in the Neenah City Council Chambers. Due to COVID restrictions, attendance will be capped at 50. Please RSVP to rachaelcg55th@gmail.com. Judge James Gunz will be administering the oath. All CDC and local health guidelines will be followed.”

###