State Representative John Macco Endorses Elijah Behnke

Small businessman and candidate for Assembly District 89, Elijah Behnke receives the endorsement of state representative John Macco. Representative Macco is currently serving his fourth term in the assembly, representing the 88th assembly district.

Rep. Macco said of Elijah, “Replacing John Nygren will be hard, voting for Elijah would be a strong step toward that. He is a solid republican, family man, farmer, business owner and kind person.”

Macco has been serving in the assembly since 2014. He currently is the chair of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. Prior to serving in the assembly John founded several successful family companies here in Wisconsin that now employ over 550 people.

Elijah states, “I am beyond honored and humbled to receive the endorsement of Representative John Macco. John is a respected leader in the state assembly, bringing his business experience and financial acumen to protect families and small business owners across the state.”

Elijah was born and raised in the district and will always be a voice for all residents of the 89th. He is a man of faith, father, husband, outdoorsman, farmer and small business owner.

The 89th assembly district covers part of Brown, Marinette and Oconto counties.
