89TH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT CANDIDATE, DAVID KAMPS, DROPS OUT AND ENDORSES ELIJAH BEHNKE

OCONTO - Outsider Assembly candidate, Elijah Behnke, receives the endorsement of his primary challenger, David Kamps, for the 89th Assembly special election.

Kamps officially announces he is dropping out of the race and is throwing his support behind Elijah. Kamps is a farmer and community leader in the district.

Behnke states, “I am humbled and honored to have received David’s endorsement. I am looking forward to us working together to provide a voice for our district’s farmers, families and small businesses.”

In a statement David Kamps shared, “Elijah is an outgoing, honest man. He is dedicated and will serve the district well. Elijah is from the district and will be an ally for the whole district, bringing his common sense values to Madison.”

Elijah Behnke was born and raised in the district and will always be a voice for his district and all residents of the 89th assembly district. He is a man of faith, father, husband, outdoorsman, farmer and small business owner.

The 89th assembly district covers part of Brown, Marinette and Oconto counties, vacated by former state representative John Nygren.

More information on Elijah and his platform can be found on his Facebook page, Elijah Behnke for Assembly or his website at www.elijahbehnke.com.
