

BLOC Announces Powerful Slate of Spring Candidates

BLOC has endorsed the following 6 candidates for the April 6th Election:

Dr. Jill Underly-Wisconsin State Superintendent of Schools, Jilly Gokalgandhi- Milwaukee School Board District 5, Katie Kegel-Milwaukee County Circuit Court Branch 3, Angela Cunningham-Kenosha County Circuit Court Judge, Branch 6, Dana Kelley- Milwaukee School Board District 4, Darrin Madison-Milwaukee County Board District 10

BLOC's Endorsement committee consisted of the BLOC Advisory board and 6 BLOC Ambassadors. Our Ambassadors have been researching and closely following the election the instant we got back from break. Through research, several candidate forums, and our interview process our team is excited to support this slate of candidates.

This year, BLOC has officially expanded to the Racine and Kenosha area and for the first time made an endorsement in Kenosha.

"2020 has pushed and stretched our limits as an organization and as individuals. We have remained steadfast in our commitment to building power in our communities. These candidates not only reflect our values as an organization but are who we feel are best for our communities as we experience these challenging times. Having strong public schools, investing into community services, and criminal justice reform are all vital issues we need to be tackling at this time and we have full confidence that these candidates will"- Angela Lang BLOC Executive Director.

We encourage everyone to support these candidates in the April 6th election. Today is the first day of in person absentee voting and our team is looking forward to supporting these candidates today through the April 6th election.
