Administration Secretary Brennan to Visit Milton, Whitewater

A top member of Gov. Tony Evers' cabinet will make stops in Milton and Whitewater on Friday, Sept. 3, announced State Rep. Don Vruwink (D-Milton).

"I'm pleased to bring Secretary Brennan to the 43rd Assembly District to see how businesses, a historic site, and an arts studio are navigating these pandemic times," Vruwink said. "I look forward to a good discussion on what assistance our communities need to recover and thrive."

Joel Brennan, Secretary of the Department of Administration, and Rep. Vruwink will visit the following businesses:

- 8:15-8:50 a.m., Badger State Maintenance, 1126 Gateway Drive, Milton
- 9-9:40 a.m., Frank Beer Distributors, 616 Gateway Drive, Milton
- 9:45-10:15 a.m., American Awards & Promotions, 1250 Arthur Drive, Milton.
- 10:30 a.m., Milton House Museum & Historical Society, 18 S. Janesville St., Milton
- Noon, Studio 84, 121 W. Center St., Whitewater
- 1:45 p.m., Whitewater Cinemas, 151 E. Pearson Lane, Whitewater

Brennan heads the department that has a wide range of responsibilities, including fiscal and policy analysis for the governor and development of the state budget.
