NEWS RELEASE

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS HOSTS OCTOBER 4 TOWN HALL WITH FOX VALLEY LEGISLATORS

APPLETON, WI —The League of Women Voters of Appleton will host a virtual Legislative Town Hall meeting with state representatives from the Fox Valley on Tuesday, October 4 from 7:00-8:30 p.m. It will be a webinar format that also will be livestreamed on the Appleton League's Facebook page.

Wisconsin Senate delegates representing the Fox Valley who have been invited to participate include Senators Andre Jacque, District 1; Robert Cowles, District 2, and Roger Roth, District 19. Assembly representatives invited include Ron Tusler, District 3; Jim Steineke, District 5; Gary Tauchen, District 6; Rachael Cabral-Guevara, District 55; Dave Murphy, District 56, and Lee Snodgrass, District 57.

During the webinar, legislators will be given an opportunity to outline their priorities for the current legislative session and answer prepared questions. Those viewing the webinar will also have an opportunity to submit a question. The last 30 minutes will be reserved for questions submitted during the event. Audience questions will be screened to avoid duplication and ensure civility, and will be posed to the legislators by the League moderator.

All questions will be screened to avoid duplication and ensure civility, and will be posed to the legislators by the League moderator.

Registration for this virtual Legislative Town Hall can be made on the League of Women Voters of Appleton webpage: www.lwvappleton.org
