Milwaukee, WI – October 27, 2021 — The award-winning Greater Brookfield Chamber of Commerce, Brookfield, Wis., is hosting its 64th annual meeting on November 11th, 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. The meeting will be held at Westmoor Country Club, 400 S. Moorland Road, Brookfield, Wis. Keynote speaker is Dr. Richard Barnhouse, president, Waukesha County Technical College.

Registration is $50 for members, which includes lunch selection. Guests are $65 which also includes lunch selection. To register, go to <https://business.brookfieldchamber.com/events/details/64th-annual-meeting-5905?calendarMonth=2021-11-01>

Carol White, president & CEO of GBCC, said, “Our annual meeting is a time to take a look at our accomplishments during the past year as well as an opportunity for us to provide valuable content not only to our members, but to the business community as a whole. The official meeting portion of our program will feature the heavy lifting work the organization during the early stages of the pandemic to support not only our member businesses but all businesses in the region. Following that, we are very excited to welcome Robert Rose to the stage, a nationally-known speaker on the topic of content marketing.”

Dr. Richard Barnhouse, keynote speaker, is the president of Waukesha County Technical College since January 2021. He holds a Ph.D. in leadership, learning and service from Cardinal Stritch University, and works to connect education to industry.

Sponsors for the annual meeting are:

The Greater Brookfield Chamber of Commerce is the only business organization in Brookfield, and the leading business organization representing the interests of business in Brookfield and the surrounding area. GBCC recognizes the value in creating collaborative partnerships with other chambers in Milwaukee and Waukesha Counties. These partnerships expand the reach, influence, and visibility of GBCC and provide additional benefits to its membership.
