Jay Schroeder Announces Candidacy for Wisconsin Secretary of State

Neenah, WI-Today, Republican businessman, Jay Schroeder announced his run for Secretary of State.

“From its founding in 1848 until the 1970s, the Secretary of State oversaw elections. I seek to return the duties and reclaim honest and fair elections. The days of rigging elections for fraud are over.”

At a time when Racine County Sheriff has filed felony charges against 5 of the 6 members of the election commission and a major candidate for Governor has filed a lawsuit with the State Supreme Court to enforce election statutes against the Wisconsin Elections Commission.

We all know the system for elections has been broken in Wisconsin for 20 years. Votes must count the same in Door, Dunn, Dodge, Douglas as they do in Dane County. Votes must count the same in Marinette, Monroe, Manitowoc, and Marquette County like in Milwaukee County.

33 states in America have elections under the Secretary of States' office and it is time Wisconsin become the 34th.

Jay Schroeder is an America First candidate running for Wisconsin Secretary of State. Jay is married to Rebekah and they have 4 children and reside in Neenah.
