AGC OF GREATER MILWAUKEE ELECTS SCOTT HEBERLEIN 2022 PRESIDENT

MILWAUKEE, WI (January 17, 2022) — The Associated General Contractors of Greater Milwaukee (AGC) is pleased to announce Scott Heberlein of Mortenson has been elected to serve as 2022 President of the AGC. As President, Heberlein's priorities are to continue to grow the association's membership, lead the industry through the on-going economic and public health challenges ahead, and continue to address long-term challenges related to developing the future workforce. The AGC has led many successful initiatives in education and workforce development, and Heberlein says, "now more than ever we have to connect increasing the diversity, equity, and inclusion of our industry with the success of our member companies."

"Scott has brought great leadership and passion to the board over the past two years, and I look forward to working with him to ensure the success of our members and advance AGC's cornerstone values Skill, Integrity, and Responsibility," said AGC-GM CEO Mark Kessenich. Heberlein is a construction industry veteran who was named one of the Milwaukee Business Journal's "40 under 40" and has provided leadership for numerous projects in Wisconsin, as well as projects in Illinois, Texas, Indiana, Ohio, North Carolina, Virginia, and Massachusetts. Along with being a Senior Vice President at Mortenson, Scott is an active volunteer with his church and his children's activities. He has served on the Board of Directors of Safe & Sound, an organization dedicated to reducing crime throughout Milwaukee, and serves on the Greater Milwaukee Committee.

The 2022 AGC Board of Directors include:

Mike Stern, Findorff; Shannon Metoxen, J.P. Cullen & Sons, Inc.; Tim Just, Just Consulting; Rupert Kotze, Kotze Construction; Jose Sanchez, Sanchez Painting; Matt Tadisch, Selzer-Ornst Construction Company, LLC; Jason Schneider, VJS Construction Services; and advisory member Jim Flemming, Langer Roofing & Sheet Metal Inc.
