FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 2, 2022

Oshkosh Man Indicted on Robbery and Firearm Charges

United States Attorney Richard G. Frohling of the Eastern District of Wisconsin announced that on February 1, 2022, a federal grand jury returned a three-count indictment against Raymon A. Fuller, Jr. (age: 26) of Oshkosh, Wisconsin. Fuller is charged with one count of Hobbs Act robbery, one count of brandishing a firearm in furtherance of a violent crime, and one count of being a felon in possession of a firearm.

The indictment alleges that Fuller, a convicted felon, committed a robbery during an illegal drug transaction in August of 2020, during which he brandished a firearm. As a felon, Fuller is prohibited from ever legally possessing a firearm. If convicted, Fuller faces up to 20 years' imprisonment on the robbery charge, a mandatory minimum seven years to life in prison for brandishing the firearm, and up to ten years in prison for being a felon in possession of a firearm.

This case was investigated by the Oshkosh Police Department and the Outagamie County Sheriff's Office. It will be prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Daniel R. Humble.

An indictment is only a charge and is not evidence of guilt. The defendant is presumed innocent and is entitled to a fair trial at which the government must prove him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
