Wisconsin Jewish Democrats Endorse Judge Lori Kornblum for Wisconsin Court of Appeals

Wisconsin Jewish Democrats, a grassroots organization, has endorsed Judge Lori Kornblum in her race to retain her seat on the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, District 2.

“The issues Wisconsin Jewish Democrats care deeply about – voting rights, fair maps, the rise in hate crimes and antisemitism – are often decided by the judges we elect,” according to co-chairs, Marvin Tick, Debbie Zemel, Linda Frank, and Richard Schwalb. “We applaud Governor Evers for appointing Judge Kornblum to the bench. Judge Kornblum has shown, throughout her life and work, that she shares our values. She will uphold the Constitution, protect the rule of law, and pursue justice. She is the clear, best choice in this race.”

Before taking the bench, Judge Kornblum was a prosecutor focused on protecting children and the needs of victims. In her private practice, she represented people with disabilities and their families and seniors. She also taught at Marquette and Northeastern Law Schools and in the award-winning paralegal program at Milwaukee Area Technical College (MATC).

She and her husband of 37 years have three grown children, and live in Mequon, Wisconsin. Her older son has autism and is non-verbal. He lives a full and active life in the community. Her daughter is a resident doctor in a Florida hospital, and her younger son is a public school teacher in New York City.

Judge Kornblum will be on the April 5 ballot in a 12-county area including Calumet, Fond du Lac, Green Lake, Kenosha, Manitowoc, Ozaukee, Racine, Kenosha, Walworth, Washington, Waukesha, and Winnebago counties. More information can be found at her website, www.electjudgelorikornblum.com.
