

Mosinee Mayor Brent Jacobson
To Seek State Senate Seat

Mosinee Mayor, Brent Jacobson has announced his intent to seek the Republican nomination for the State Senate Seat vacated by retiring Senator Jerry Petrowski. Jacobson, 37, is presently serving in his 4th term as Mayor of the City of Mosinee. He announced his candidacy on March 11th following Senator Petrowski's retirement announcement. In addition to serving Mosinee as its Mayor, Jacobson serves on the Marathon County Board and maintains a full time law practice in Central Wisconsin. He is a proud husband and new dad to his daughter, Aria Ann.

Jacobson commented that in entering the race to be Central Wisconsin's next Senator, he intends to bring small town values to Madison. Jacobson stated that his record of success in reviving his community is a proven example of the type of leadership he hopes to bring to Madison for all residents of Central Wisconsin.

Jacobson stated that he looks forward to discussing his campaign with the residents of the 29th Senate District over the coming months.
