Lasry Campaign Goes Back on the Air

Milwaukee - Today, Alex Lasry announced that his campaign is going back on the air with its third seven-figure television buy of the campaign.

The Lasry campaign released a new ad hitting Ron Johnson. In the ad, Lasry points out Ron Johnson's continued failure to deliver for Wisconsin families, including his refusal to fight to bring jobs back to Wisconsin, his support for phasing out Social Security and Medicare, and his endorsement of the new Republican plan that would raise taxes on middle class families.

"For over a decade, Ron Johnson has refused to fight for working Wisconsin families," said Lasry. "Now, Ron Johnson is promising that if the GOP takes the majority, they are going to raise taxes on middle class workers and phase out Social Security and Medicare."

"Voters in Wisconsin want a U.S. Senator that has a proven record of delivering real results that make a difference in working people's lives," Lasry continued. "We are building the team that will beat Ron Johnson and are going to continue to reach out to as many voters as possible over the coming months."

Lasry's latest television buy consists of statewide broadcast and cable and will be accompanied by a digital media buy as well. Lasry's campaign was the first in this race to go on the air back in November. This will be the campaign's third seven-figure media buy.

The Democratic Primary Election for the United States Senate will be held Tuesday, August 9th, 2022. For more information about Alex Lasry's campaign, visit www.alexlasry.com.
