LET'S GET TO WORK.

Tim Michels is not a politician. He's a business leader, he's a builder, and he's a veteran. He grew up in Brownsville where he learned the value of commitment and hard work. After graduation, Tim joined the U.S. Army, where he served for twelve years.

After his time in uniform and retiring with the rank of Major, Tim returned home to Wisconsin and alongside his brothers, he helped grow his family's business from a few hundred employees to more than 8,000. Tim and his wife, Barbara, live in Hartland, Wisconsin. They have three adult children.
