Adam Steen Challenges Speaker Robin Vos to a Series of Debates

Sturtevant, WI — On May 19, 2022, Candidate Adam Steen challenged Robin Vos to a series of three debates in Wisconsin's 63rd Assembly District.

Candidate Adam made the following statement:

Throughout the course of my campaign, I have had the pleasure of speaking with many citizens in the 63rd Assembly District. In doing so, I have heard intense frustration expressed toward both our state and federal government. Overall, THE PEOPLE feel their voices are being ignored by their elected representatives.

Now, more than ever, people recognize just how much leverage and influence their state representatives have granted under the 10th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution— which holds that the federal government is barred from interfering with certain powers of the state. People are moving to Florida because the state politicians there have prioritized the protection of individual rights. For this reason, it is important the people of the 63rd Assembly District are provided a clear understanding of the candidates' position on the issues they find most concerning; to do so, I have invited Speaker Vos to a series of three debates with a request to respond within 24-hours (debate schedule, noted below).

Unfortunately, my office has yet to receive a response to the invitation for debate from Speaker Vos. I am hopeful he will have a change of heart as his decision will only serve to harm the people he is supposed to represent.
