JUDGE JENNIFER DOROW'S CAMPAIGN LAUNCHES FIRST TELEVISION AD IN WISCONSIN SUPREME COURT RACE

Waukesha, Wis. (February 2, 2023) – Supreme Court candidate Judge Jennifer Dorow released her first television ad of the cycle, highlighting the depth of her judicial experience and the overwhelming support she has received from law enforcement.

Judge Dorow's handling of the Waukesha Christmas Parade attack trial garnered national praise and made her the immediate conservative frontrunner when she entered the race. "Tested," establishes Judge Dorow as the clear law-and-order candidate, with a long record of keeping families safe by putting criminals behind bars. The ad will be running on both cable and broadcast networks. It will also be seen on digital platforms.

"We are excited to continue to educate voters about Judge Dorow's unmatched legal and judicial experience and her overwhelming support from law enforcement," said Amber Schroeder, Judge Dorow's campaign manager. "The entire state was able to see Judge Dorow's command of the law and strength in the courtroom during the Waukesha Christmas parade attack case. She'll take those same skills to the Wisconsin Supreme Court."

A former prosecutor, Judge Dorow's breadth of legal and judicial experience is unparalleled in the race. She has been on the bench for 11 years, serves as Chief Judge for the Third District, and was chosen by her peers to serve as chief of the chief judges. Her husband Brian is a former law enforcement officer, and they have three children.
