Keep Our Republic and Leader Ethics Hosts Virtual Program to Address AI Election Threats

AI Expert Miles Taylor discusses AI's Impact on Election Security in Upcoming Webinar

Keep Our Republic, in collaboration with LeaderEthics and various community partners, is pleased to announce an upcoming virtual program titled “Artificial Intelligence: Political Concerns in November 2024 and Beyond.” This event is scheduled for Tuesday, July 9, 2024, at 12:00 PM (Central) on Zoom.

As artificial intelligence (AI) continues to advance rapidly, showing promise in health, climate science, and automation, concerns are growing about its potential threats to homeland security and the integrity of our political process. This program will feature a conversation with recognized national leaders to explore how AI might impact election disinformation and the electoral process.

Featured speakers include Miles Taylor, with Rusty Cunningham as the moderator.

Miles Taylor is the Chief Policy Officer of The Future US, a nonprofit/nonpartisan organization that aims to use tomorrow's breakthroughs to shape policy today. Taylor has an extensive background, having served as Chief of Staff at the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and as Head of Advanced Technology & Security Strategy at Google. He is also a New York Times best-selling author and has been a prominent advisor and media contributor on issues of national security and democracy reform.

Rusty Cunningham, former Executive Editor of the La Crosse Tribune and Winona Daily News, brings over 40 years of experience in the newspaper industry. He is renowned for his commitment to integrity and community collaboration, making him a respected voice in discussions on media and democracy.

This event provides a unique opportunity for community members and stakeholders to engage with leading experts on the critical issue of AI in politics. Participants will gain valuable insights
