Racine Recall Demands Immediate Dismantling of Corrupt Wisconsin Elections Commission

Union Grove, WI - June 27, 2024 - The Racine Recall Committee is calling for the immediate dismantling of the Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC), citing egregious corruption and failure to comply with Wisconsin election laws. The WEC has demonstrated that it is set up to protect those in power rather than to fairly administer elections and uphold election laws.

The WEC has recently denied the constitutional right of Racine County citizens to recall Assembly Speaker Robin Vos. Despite our efforts and collecting well over the required number of signatures to force a recall, the commission, led by Commissioner Meagan Wolfe, chose to ignore the recommendations of their own attorneys to certify the recall petition. This action silences the voices of Racine County and denies justice to the voters.

Robin Vos, who created the WEC and appointed many of its members, is shielding Meagan Wolfe and the commission's corrupt practices. This commission has repeatedly failed to serve the interests of Wisconsin voters and has shown a blatant disregard for election integrity and transparency.

Now, more than ever, it is imperative to vote out Robin Vos and dismantle the Wisconsin Elections Commission. The WEC has shown it will not comply with Wisconsin election laws and is more interested in protecting those in power than ensuring fair and free elections.

The Racine Recall Committee stands firm in its commitment to restore election integrity and to hold those responsible for corruption and malfeasance accountable. We call on all citizens of Wisconsin to join us in this fight for justice and democracy.
