Racine Recall Committee to Address Troubling Findings from Robin Vos's Challenge Response

Union Grove, WI - June 19, 2024 - The Racine Recall Committee invites members of the press and the public to a press conference at the Wisconsin Elections Commission headquarters on Wednesday, June 19th, at 2:30 PM Central Time. And yes, for real this time!

We will discuss troubling findings from the response submitted by Robin Vos's lawyer last Friday, focusing on why the Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC) must move forward with the recall election. The WEC's failure to adhere to Wisconsin state election statutes has jeopardized the constitutional rights of the constituents in the 63rd Assembly District.

We are deeply concerned about inappropriate conversations and coordination between the WEC and Vos's attorney, which raises serious questions about the impartiality and integrity of this process. The WEC must respect the constitutionally protected right to recall and call the election.

Former Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Michael Gableman and attorney Kevin Scott will lead the press conference. They will present evidence as to why the recall election must proceed and will be available to answer questions from the media.

The Racine Recall Committee has worked tirelessly to ensure that the voices of the constituents in the 63rd Assembly District are heard. We have successfully met all the legal requirements to trigger a recall. It is now imperative that the WEC upholds these rights and confirms that we have met the criteria for a recall election.

Details of the Press Conference:

- Date: Wednesday, June 19, 2024
- Time: 2:30 PM Central Time
- Location: Wisconsin Elections Commission Headquarters
