

WITTCROW

FOR JUDGE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 17, 2024

wittchowforjudge@gmail.com

Judge Jennifer Dorow Endorses Zach Wittchow for Waukesha County Judge

Dorow's Endorsement Adds to Growing List of Support for the Wittchow Campaign

Today, Waukesha County Judge Jennifer Dorow announced her endorsement of Zach Wittchow's campaign for Waukesha County Circuit Court, Branch 6. Judge Dorow received nationwide praise for her judicial temperament and legal acumen during the Waukesha Christmas parade trial and observed Zach's character and courtroom presence firsthand during the trial.

She was appointed to the Waukesha County Circuit Court in 2012 and previously served six years as the Chief Judge for the Third Judicial District. She offered the following statement in support of Zach's campaign for Branch 6:

"Waukesha County voters can be assured that Zach will be a judge who upholds the rule of law and will protect the rights of crime victims in his courtroom. He will be a fantastic addition to the Waukesha County bench and will be ready to serve on day one. I've been able to observe Zach's courtroom demeanor for years and know he will ensure that all litigants and crime victims who come into his courtroom will be treated with respect and dignity."

Judge Dorow's endorsement of Zach's campaign adds to a growing list of endorsements from judges and law enforcement officials. Zach has been endorsed by Waukesha County Judges Michael Maxwell, Michael Aprahamian, Jack Pitzo, Michael Bohren, Ralph Ramirez, Brad Schimel, and Cody Horlacher. He has also received the support of the Waukesha Police Chiefs Association and the Waukesha Deputy Sheriffs' Labor Union.

"I'm honored to receive the endorsement of Judge Dorow and add her to the list of so many other great public servants in Waukesha County who are supporting my campaign," Zach said. "I look forward to continuing to earn the support of the voters of Waukesha County who want to ensure that the county remains a safe and stable community."

Zach grew up in Rosendale, Wisconsin, and graduated cum laude from Marquette Law School with a certificate in litigation and special honors for pro bono service. He and his wife Ali have lived in Waukesha County for over a decade; they have three daughters and a dog named Huckleberry. Outside of the courthouse Zach is active in church leadership at Ascension Lutheran Church in Waukesha and regularly volunteers with the Sheriff's Department Citizens' Academy, several local DARE programs, and Waukesha Noon Kiwanis. He is also an active member of the Waukesha County Bar Association, as well as the Milwaukee Chapter of the Federalist Society.

To find out more about Zach's campaign please visit:
<https://www.wittchowforjudge.com/>.
