Ben Gruber Declares Victory in Assembly District 51

Arena, Wis. - Following the final results in Assembly District 51, Ben Gruber will be the next representative to the State Assembly. Ben Gruber released the following statement:

“I want to thank everyone who showed up to cast a vote in this election, all the volunteers who supported this campaign, and my friends and family for their encouragement over the last few months. I am honored that the voters chose me to represent them in the State Assembly, this is not a responsibility I take lightly.”

“Change does not end at the ballot box, that’s where it starts. I look forward to the work of representing Southwestern Wisconsin and fighting to make Wisconsin a place where everyone can thrive.”
