John Kroll Declares Victory in AD 85

WAUSAU, Wis. — Following the final vote tallies, John Kroll will be the next representative to the State Assembly in the 85th District. John Kroll released the following statement:

“Tonight is a monumental moment for Marathon County. The voters have spoken and their message was heard loud and clear – it is time for change in Madison.”

“Our victory today would not have been possible without the support from the many volunteers, voters, and community members. All of their volunteer hours knocking doors, making phone calls, and talking to voters in our district is the reason why we won tonight. I am truly grateful for our win tonight and I want to sincerely thank all of the supporters and, most importantly, my family for believing in our campaign and personally putting their trust in me to make Wisconsin a better place for everyone.

“Progress is never linear. But when you put in the work day after day, results will come over time. And now is the time for change.

“For the entire year, I’ve been beating the drum that the only way to win is to outwork everyone. We’ve shown that grassroots energy and support can win in any competitive race. Now it’s time for the real work to begin in the State Legislature so we can make Wisconsin the best state it can be.”
