State Senator Rachael Cabral-Guevara Elected Republican Caucus Chair

Fox Crossing, WI – Yesterday, the Wisconsin State Senate Republican Caucus held leadership elections for the 2027-28 legislative session. State Senator Rachael Cabral-Guevara (R-Fox Crossing) was elected Republican Caucus Chair and released the following statement:

"I am honored that my colleagues chose me to serve as caucus chair for the next session," said Sen. Cabral-Guevara. "Together with the rest of the new leadership team, we must offer a plan that reflects where voters' priorities are."

"Next session, Wisconsin will have a Democratic trifecta for the first time in 16 years," she added. "While I remain hopeful the new Democratic majorities will resist the extremes of their caucuses, I am concerned that their proposals from previous sessions lay out a dangerous blueprint: new taxes, anti-business regulations driving jobs out of state, billions in new spending we cannot afford, and an affordability crisis made worse."

"The common-sense reforms Republicans fought for—to control spending, rein in government, and let you keep more of your hard-earned money—are all on the line. Our caucus must offer a better path forward and I look forward to working as a team to do exactly that."
